Planning ahead

It is a sobering fact that, with ever increasing life expectancies, many of us reach the latter part of our lives finding it difficult to cope. This may be as a result of physical disability, poor memory and attention, or else bemusement at jargon and the complexities of modern life.

At Gaby Hardwicke we offer a specialist team wholly dedicated to the day to day welfare and financial affairs of elderly clients. This may encompass reviewing the need for Power of Attorney so that affairs can be handled efficiently. Equally, if no Power of Attorney is made, and the Court of Protection is obliged to come on the scene, Gaby Hardwicke is well versed in dealing with the Court, where necessary acting as Receiver, and managing our clients' affairs.

Our clients are very important to us. We treat each client as an individual and appreciate that their circumstances are very different. Our specialist team will ensure you achieve financial certainty and peace of mind with no concerns about future costs.
