Dispute Resolution

Part of Gaby Hardwicke's strong and growing Commercial Department, the dispute resolution team focuses exclusively on resolving disputes for businesses, across the spectrum - from sole trader to plc.

Our work covers all of the common areas of business dispute, including:

- Sale of Goods and Services
- Breach of Contract
- Debt Recovery
- Business Ownership, Management and Investment
- Property and Landlord & Tenant
- Partnerships

Working closely with other teams in the Commercial Department, we also provide expert advice and representation in disputes concerning:

- Intellectual Property and Data Protection
- E-commerce and Technology
- Employment
- Insolvency and Business Recovery
- Construction
- Banking and Finance
- Professional Negligence

Put simply, if your business has a dispute, or a potential dispute, we believe we can help you – and if we can't, we will say so and try to help you find someone who can.

How and where?

The team is experienced in resolving disputes in several different forums, including:

- County Courts, the High Court and the Court of Appeal
- Domestic and International Arbitration
- Mediation
- Ombudsman Schemes and Regulators
- Tribunals
- Expert Determinations

So we don't just litigate. In fact, we try and avoid it whenever we can.

Of course, each case we deal with is different and demands its own particular strategy, but Alternative Dispute Resolution can be both cheaper and more successful than traditional methods. We are strong supporters of it but, where we have to fight in court, we do it effectively.

Why Us?

- We focus on giving expert and innovative advice
- We help you shape your objectives and work decisively to achieve them
- We offer advice which is both reasoned and commercial
- We can be tenacious as well as pragmatic: together we define what is the most effective approach
- We understand value and are driven by your commercial interests at all times, including minimising costs
- We are not afraid to say you are wasting time and money in pursuing a dispute
- We try and avoid litigation, but will fight your corner if necessary with all the depth of our resources
