

David Young

Partner and Member of Board of Management

David joined the firm in 1986 having spent 2 years in theatre management in London. He qualified in 1988, becoming a partner in 1990. During his time at Gaby Hardwicke, David has gained extensive experience of all areas of family law, developing an expertise in heavyweight ancillary relief and probate disputes. He combines case management responsibilities with his wider duties on The Board of Management. Member of the Law Society Family Law Panel and an Accredited Specialist of Resolution (formerly the Solicitors Family Law Association).